Christensen was not pleased with the neglect of the County to get requested figures to the Town regarding how much of the Town's money goes to clearing the County Roads. He stated that the Town has waited over two years for these figures with no results.

8. Code Enforcement/Watershed Report

Griffin stated that yesterday Olney and himself went to Arthurs Road where there was a condemned mobile home. He said that something has to be done with this place to get it cleaned up. The County was going to help with the situation but the funding fell through.

The Board and Code Enforcement Officer discussed the situation. Griffin stated that the problem needs to be taken care of as soon as possible to prevent more infestation.

Resolution 2014-107 to authorize Code Enforcement Officer John Griffin to help with the clean-up on Arthurs Road with the financial help of another source besides the Town, and if that is not possible he will come in next month with more information and a quote for the scope of work and go from there was made by Olney and seconded by Crosby.
