7. Code Enforcement Report

Jesse Jayne submitted his resignation letter. He will resign as of September 1st.

He stated that the new zoning is pretty much complete. General Code needed ten questions answered that he took care of.

He shared that there were two new special use permits applications, but both need more information before they are approved.

8. Supervisor's Comments/Concerns

Yarrington shared that the cost for health insurance will increase by 24.27%. The new website is up and running. He also shared that he will be doing summer office hours on Tuesdays twelve until four.

9. Public Comments/Concerns

Regular Meeting, June 25, 2024

George Lawson inquired about replacing the bridge on Pre-Emption Road over Big Stream since the road is not abandoned. He stated that he doesn't know if it's possible, but it would divert so much traffic from Bridge and Vine Streets and be more convenient for people coming from the Six-Corners area.

Lawson also shared that the Yates County Public Safety Building needs updated. It would be a multi-phase process.

Steve Brigham shared that at the KWIC & KLOC meetings there was discussion regarding the controversy of docking on the sand bar. There will be a public hearing in Jerusalem on July 17th.
